

30200 cable tray price

AI Overview

The price of a 30x200 mm cable tray ranges from approximately £15.95 to higher depending on brand and material. The Legrand CF30200E wire tray, measuring 30 mm in height, 200 mm in width, and 3 meters in length, is priced at £15.95 excluding VAT (£19.14 including VAT) per unit, and is electrogalvanized for durability. The Niedax MTC 30.200 E3 mesh cable tray, also 30 mm x 200 mm x 3 meters, is made from CITO premium material for high resistance and durability, suitable for professional installations. While the exact price is not listed in the source, it is typically sold as a single piece or in sets of three units, and pricing may vary depending on supplier and region. For other options, hot-dip galvanized ladder-type cable trays of similar dimensions (standard length 2.4 meters) are available, with prices varying based on material, finish, and supplier. Bulk orders or customized trays can also affect the cost. When purchasing, consider: Material: Mesh, ladder, or solid bottom trays affect durability and price. Length: Standard lengths are 2.4 m or 3 m; longer trays may cost more. Supplier: Prices vary between distributors like McMaster-Carr, Alibaba, or local electrical suppliers. Overall, for a 30x200 mm cable tray, expect prices starting around £15–£20 per 3-meter unit, with premium materials or specialized brands costing more.
