

Canadian cable tray price quote

AI Overview

Cable tray support pricing in Canada varies by material, size, and configuration, with suppliers like Unitray, Mechano Max, ZipTray, and WESCO offering custom quotes. Supplier Options and Features Unitray specializes in aluminum cable trays and supports, offering systems like FASTRAY® that are designed for easy installation and high load capacity. They provide ready-to-install fittings and a simplified component system, which can reduce labor costs. Pricing is available upon request by contacting their sales team directly. Mechano Max provides modular, bolt-together steel supports suitable for heavy-duty applications. Their systems are adjustable, require no welding, and ship across Canada. They also offer free quotes and can engineer supports to meet NEC spacing requirements for cable trays. ZipTray offers lightweight cable tray systems and allows comparison with other brands like B-Line or Thomas & Betts. Pricing and detailed specifications are available by contacting the company directly. WESCO Canada supplies a wide range of cable tray components, including splice plates, covers, and end closures in aluminum. Customers must log in or request an account to view pricing and availability, and they can request quotes for specific configurations.

How to Obtain a Quote

Identify your requirements: Determine the tray type, material (aluminum or steel), size, load capacity, and installation type (horizontal, vertical, adjustable).

Contact suppliers: Reach out via email or phone to request a quote. Provide specifications, quantities, and any project-specific requirements.

Compare quotes: Evaluate pricing, shipping costs, lead times, and installation support.

Request technical support: Suppliers like Unitray and Mechano Max can provide installation guides and engineering support to ensure compliance with local codes. By contacting these suppliers directly, you can obtain accurate, up-to-date pricing tailored to your project needs in Canada.
