

Direct supply from Vietnam SN connector manufacturer

AI Overview

Vietnam offers a wide range of verified SN connector manufacturers and direct supply options for industrial and electronic applications. Key Vietnamese Suppliers SUN-WA TECHNOS (Vietnam) Co., Ltd specializes in industrial and electronic connectors, including MS and SN types. They are one of the largest connector suppliers in Vietnam and provide products sourced from Japan and other global markets, ensuring high-quality standards for industrial applications (sunwa.com.vn). Volza maintains a database of over 13,000 connector cable suppliers in Vietnam, including SN connectors. Their platform provides shipment-level data, verified exporter contacts, and tools to filter suppliers by volume, product type, and pricing tiers, enabling direct connections with manufacturers for risk-mitigated procurement (volza.com). VALO Vietnam is a verified sourcing platform connecting buyers with Vietnamese manufacturers. All suppliers are vetted for export experience, and the platform supports direct engagement with manufacturers, ensuring reliable supply chains for SN connectors and other electronic components (valovietnam.com). Viet Factory offers a comprehensive directory of Vietnamese manufacturers. Buyers can post detailed "Request For Suppliers" (RFS) to attract direct responses from suitable SN connector manufacturers, facilitating direct sourcing and negotiation (vietfactory.com). Vietnam B2B Direct provides sourcing, procurement, and supply chain management services. They assist international buyers in connecting with Vietnamese manufacturers, offering quality control, factory inspections, and direct supply arrangements for industrial components including connectors (vietnamb2bdirect.com). How to Source Directly Identify Verified Suppliers: Use platforms like Volza, VALO Vietnam, and Viet Factory to filter suppliers by product t...
