

How much does East Asia anti-corrosion cable tray cost

AI Overview

High-quality anti-corrosion cable trays from East Asia are available from $1/meter for plastic trays to $50/meter for heavy-duty metal trays, depending on material, type, and customization options.

Overview of Anti-Corrosion Cable Trays

Anti-corrosion cable trays are designed to protect electrical wiring in harsh environments, including coastal areas, chemical plants, and industrial sites, ensuring durability and safety .

Common materials include:

- Galvanized steel: Cost-effective, suitable for mild to moderate corrosion environments, widely used in commercial and industrial buildings .
- Aluminum alloy: Lightweight, corrosion-resistant, ideal for moderate corrosion exposure, and easy to install .
- PVC or ABS plastic: Non-conductive, highly corrosion-resistant, often used in sensitive IT or chemical environments .
- E-coated or powder-coated steel: Provides additional protection against severe corrosion .

Price Ranges

Pricing varies based on material, tray type, and supplier:

- Plastic fiber optic trays: Approximately $1/meter, suitable for IT and low-load applications .
- Lightweight aluminum or perforated steel trays: Typically $5–$15/meter, offering moderate corrosion resistance and ventilation .
- Heavy-duty galvanized or stainless steel ladder trays: Around $20–$50/meter, designed for high-load industrial or outdoor environments .
- Custom OEM or factory-direct trays: Prices depend on specifications, volume, and coatings; bulk orders often receive volume discounts .

Types of Cable Trays

- Ladder trays: Strong, durable, ideal for heavy-duty installations, excellent airflow .
- Solid-bottom trays: Fully enclosed, maximum protection against dust, water, and chemicals .
- Perforated trays: Balanced protection and ventilation, suitable for commercial and mixed-use environments .
- Channel trays: Compact, efficient for small bundles or tight spaces .
- Wire mesh trays: Lightweight, flexible, easy access for mai...
