

Indonesian Outdoor Distribution Box Manufacturer Supply

AI Overview

Key manufacturers of outdoor distribution boxes in Indonesia include AC Rittal, PADI Electric, Norden Communication, and Fortindo, offering a range of customizable and durable solutions.

AC Rittal Indonesia AC Rittal is a well-established supplier of Rittal brand panel boxes, including outdoor distribution panels, generator panels, and AC panels. They provide medium to large-sized box panels, available in fixed, assembled, or knock-down configurations. AC Rittal emphasizes customization and modular solutions for industrial electrical applications, making them suitable for complex outdoor installations in Indonesia.

PADI Electric (PT Perkasa Adi Daya Indonesia) PADI Electric manufactures and distributes electrical products including junction boxes, panel boxes, and cable trays. They offer custom fabrication in steel, stainless steel, aluminum, and PVC, catering to both local and international standards. Their products include thermoplastic and metal panel boxes, suitable for outdoor electrical distribution.

Norden Communication Norden specializes in FTTH fiber distribution boxes and is a leading supplier in Indonesia. Their products are designed for telecommunication and fiber optic networks, providing durable and reliable outdoor enclosures for fiber distribution.

Fortindo Fortindo offers a variety of distribution boxes for industrial and electrical applications. While specific product details are limited on their website, they provide a range of ready-to-purchase outdoor distribution boxes suitable for various electrical installations.

Additional Considerations When selecting an outdoor distribution box manufacturer in Indonesia, consider:

- Material and durability: Stainless steel, aluminum, or thermoplastic options for weather resistance.
- Customization: Modular or made-to-measure solutions for specific project requirements.
- Certifications: ISO or IEC compliance for quality assurance.
