

Oman Distribution Box Brand Manufacturer

AI Overview

Key distribution box manufacturers in Oman include Apex Packaging, Pride Packaging LLC, and Pack'n, offering custom and industrial-grade packaging solutions. Apex Packaging, established in 2020 in the Sumail Industrial Area, is a leading Omani manufacturer of custom and standardized corrugated boxes. They provide a wide range of packaging solutions with high-speed micro-corrugation machines capable of producing up to 700 MT. Apex emphasizes quality control, with in-house testing for box compression and color accuracy, ensuring reliable and durable distribution boxes for various industries. They also offer custom printing and design services to enhance branding. Pride Packaging LLC, part of Sea Pride LLC, operates from the Sur Industrial Area and specializes in kraft paper boxes. Their facilities include advanced 5-ply corrugators with B, C, and E flute shapes, producing up to 3,000 tonnes of kraft paper conversion monthly. They also feature flexographic printing, inline gluing, and rotary die cutting, with a daily output of up to 180,000 boxes. Pride Packaging adheres to international safety and hygiene standards, making them suitable for large-scale distribution needs. Pack'n, established in 2019, provides access to over 140 specialized factories in Oman, offering flexible sourcing for packaging and canning, including distribution boxes. They focus on data-driven inventory optimization and just-in-time strategies, ensuring efficient supply chain management and timely delivery across Oman. Pack'n is ideal for businesses seeking customized packaging solutions with reliable logistics support.
