

South Sudan Waterproof Distribution Box Direct Sales Manufacturer

AI Overview

You can source IP65/IP66/IP67 waterproof distribution boxes in South Sudan through direct manufacturers like Selhot Electric and local distributors such as Prior International Limited. Direct Manufacturers Selhot Electric offers factory-direct waterproof distribution boxes made from UV-resistant PC/ABS materials, certified with CE/TUV standards. They provide IP65/IP67-rated enclosures suitable for outdoor and industrial applications, with customizable knockouts for wiring and installation flexibility (Selhot Electric). International buyers can request quotes and arrange direct shipments. Local Distribution and Trading Companies Prior International Limited, headquartered in Juba, South Sudan, provides end-to-end trading, sourcing, and distribution services. They handle industrial consumables, electrical equipment, and authorized distributorships, making them a reliable partner for procuring waterproof distribution boxes locally. Their services include import facilitation, warehousing, and last-mile delivery across urban and rural areas in South Sudan (Prior International Limited). Supplier Directories and Market Intelligence Trademo and Volza list verified South Sudanese manufacturers and exporters. These platforms allow you to filter suppliers by product type, export volume, and verified contacts, enabling direct outreach to manufacturers or distributors of waterproof distribution boxes (Trademo, Volza). East Africa Tenders provides a business directory of South Sudan companies, including industrial suppliers and water/electrical solutions providers. This can help identify local enterprises capable of supplying or distributing waterproof distribution boxes (East Africa Tenders).
