

Specifications of Middle Eastern Cable Tray Accessories

AI Overview

Middle Eastern cable tray accessories are designed for durability, compliance with international standards, and versatile installation across industrial, commercial, and infrastructure projects.

Types of Cable Tray Accessories

Cable tray accessories in the Middle East include a wide range of components to support, route, and protect electrical and data cables:

- Bends and Elbows: Horizontal and vertical bends, 90° and 45° elbows for directional changes in cable routing.
- Reducers: Used to transition between different tray widths while maintaining cable support.
- Tees and Crosses: Facilitate branching of cable runs in multiple directions.
- Covers and End Plates: Provide protection for sensitive cables and prevent dust accumulation.
- Couplers and Connectors: Ensure secure joining of tray sections for structural integrity.

Materials and Finishes

Accessories are manufactured to withstand harsh Middle Eastern environments and meet industrial-grade durability requirements:

- Materials: Galvanized Iron (GI), stainless steel (Grades 304 and 316L), and steel for basket trays.
- Surface Treatments: Hot-dip galvanizing, pre-galvanized, epoxy-coated, powder-coated, and zinc-plated finishes.
- Corrosion Resistance: Designed for high-altitude and outdoor installations, ensuring long-term reliability.

Standards and Compliance

Middle Eastern cable tray accessories adhere to international standards to ensure safety and compatibility: NEMA VE 1, IEC 61537, BS EN 61537, BS 61537:2002 for cable installations.

Functional Applications

Accessories are suitable for a variety of sectors and cable types:

- Light Duty Trays: For networking, data, and fiber optic cables.
- Medium Duty Trays: For commercial electrical installations.
- Heavy Duty Trays: For industrial and high-load applications, including oil and gas, infrastructure, and data centers.
- Basket Tray Accessories: Provide tool-free installation, enhanced airflow, and separation of...
